Prof. Valeri Z. Sukhishvili, Rector
Sukhishvili University

Dear Sir,

The University headed by you is known at the national level as a leading one in its branch. We think that namely such universities as yours which are striving for perfection in all fields of its activities and oriented invariably to students' interests, should be recognized on the international level.

Therefore we are pleased to declare that your high personal authority, fruitful and efficient leadership, socially directed position have given the Nomination Committee of Europe Business Assembly (EBA, Oxford, United Kingdom) an opportunity to nominate you for "European Quality Award".

This prestigious award is given to companies, universities, products and services of which satisfy the highest qualitative characteristics and competitiveness. This award gives the right to place corresponding symbolism on business documentation, products, and labels as well as in any advertising purposes.

This nomination relies on statistic and consulting data, information and rate agencies, EBA partners' recommendations. You can learn more about the description of the nomination on the official EBA Internet-resource: <http://www.ebaofxford.co.uk/index.html>

Emphasizing public confidence and a high status of the award we invite you for the XLIV "International Socrates Award Ceremony", which will be held on 9th of March 2009 in the framework of "Oxford Summit of Leaders" (Oxford Town Hall, United Kingdom, 8th - 11th March 2009). The Programme is enclosed.

We are firmly convinced that presenting of this award will facilitate further promotion of services of the university headed by you, will strengthen a positive image and students' trust.

An accreditation form and necessary information you can receive from the project's coordinator:
